

Dear FOBMB Council members

Herewith I am sharing the call for applications for the Young Scientists Program of YSP 2025 to be held in Busan, Republic of Korea.

Appreciate it if you could convey the message and encourage eligible members of your societies to apply.

Regards

Rasika Perera

[FAOBMB 2025]
Young Scientist Program 2025
(YSP2025) Fellowship

INVITATION

On behalf of the 31st FAOBMB Conference: Organizing Committee we are delighted selected early career researchers will participate in the Young Scientist Program (YSP2025), taking place in the Prestige Biopharma IDC, Busan, Republic of Korea from Sunday 18 - Tuesday 20 May 2025.

YSP2025 will bring together outstanding PhD candidates and early career researchers (<10 years post-PhD) from the FAOBMB region and IUBMB member countries for a 2-day scientific and networking program, prior to the 31st FAOBMB Conference.

During the 2-day scientific and networking program, the outstanding young scientists will have the opportunity to disseminate their research to an international audience, build their global network with peers, and promote their scientific career. As well as presentations from all participants, YSP2025 will include extensive networking opportunities and career-focused workshops. All participants will receive a Travel Fellowship to support their participation at both YSP2025 and 31st FAOBMB Conference.
